

NOVEMBER 2022

EVENTS

BLACK INDIANS FROM NEW ORLEANS

A tribute to the spectacular, more than 150-year-old carnival tradition, created by the African-American community in reaction to the traditional Mardi Gras from which they were excluded during the time of segregation.

- 📅 Until 15 January 2023
- 📍 Musée du quai Branly – Jacques Chirac
- <https://m.quaibrantly.fr>

FÜSSLI, THE REALM OF DREAMS AND THE FANTASTIC

The art of the painter Henry Fuseli (Johann Heinrich Füssli) is presented in some sixty works featuring Shakespearean subjects, representations of dreams, nightmares, and apparitions, and also mythological and biblical illustrations.

- 📅 Until 23 January 2023
- 📍 Musée Jacquemart-André
- www.musee-jacquemart-andre.com

THE 80S. FASHION, DESIGN, AND GRAPHIC DESIGN IN FRANCE

From fashion to music, graphics and design, the museum celebrates the creative buzz of the 1980s with a collection of some 700 colourful works and archival material: fashion silhouettes, furniture, posters, photographs, music videos, record sleeves, etc.

- 📅 Until 16 April 2023
- 📍 MAD – Musée des Arts décoratifs
- <https://madparis.fr/ExpoAnnees80>

TOP SECRET

The Cinémathèque presents a panorama of the fascinating world of spies in the movies and sheds light on these great fictional figures, often inspired by real people and events: Mata Hari, James Bond, Malotru ...

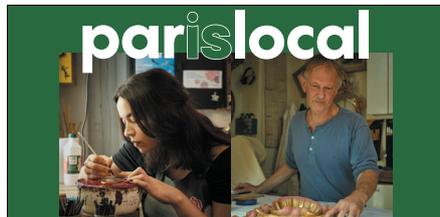

- 📅 Until 21 May 2023
- 📍 Cinémathèque française
- www.cinematheque.fr

URBAN INFLUENCE

Music, fashion, digital art, live painting, tattoos, graffiti, jewellery, artist-brand partnerships ... The world and history of street culture are explored through immersive scenography and a multitude of prisms.

- 📅 18-20 November
- 📍 Ellia Art Gallery, 10 rue de Turenne, 4th
- www.urban-influence.fr

PARISLOCAL

After the success of its first edition, the event showcasing the excellence and know-how of artisans, designers and tradespeople in the capital and the Paris region is back, for the delight of visitors and Parisians alike.

- 📅 18-20 November
- 📍 Paris and Greater Paris
- <https://parislocal.parisjetaime.com>

SALON NAUTIC

Fans and professionals gather in the aisles of this trade show to find out what's new in the nautical sector. Not to miss, alongside the event: Nautic Paddle, the biggest stand-up paddle race in the world, held on the river Seine.

- 📅 3-10 December (Nautic Paddle: 4 December)
- 📍 Paris Expo Porte de Versailles – Viparis
- www.salonnautiqueparis.com

BATTLE PRO SERIES

The event brings together over 100 international dancers to compete for the prestigious title of world breakdance champion.

- 📅 3 December 2022
- 📍 Dôme de Paris – Palais des Sports
- <https://battle-pro.com>

INAUGURATIONS

MAISON SAINTONGE

This elegant hotel is inspired by the great family houses of the South West. A patio, 22 guest rooms and suites with exposed beams and its delicatessen regularly stocked by regional producers, contribute to the charm of the place.

- 📍 16 rue de Saintonge, 3rd
- <https://maisonsaintonge.com>

ARDENT

At the helm of this gourmet restaurant, dedicated to cooking with fire and flames, are two Parisian chefs – Arthur Lecomte and Charles Nikitits – respectively owners of the restaurants Bien Élevé, Bien Ficelé and L'Office.

- 📍 40 rue Richer, 9th
- www.restaurant-ardent.com

HILTON GARDEN INN PORTE DE LA VILLETTE*

Located in the former warehouses of the Magasins Généraux, the new establishment from the Naos group boasts 92 rooms, 2 seminar rooms, a fitness area, and a sustainable concept-store restaurant, named Babette.

- 📅 December
- 📍 11 rue de Cambrai, 19th
- www.hiltonhotels.com